

On behalf of the 2022 National Black and Latino Summit Co-Chairs, we are grateful for the opportunity to celebrate the life and legacy of our fearless leader, Al Piña.

The family is also grateful for all of the generous acts of kindness, love, and prayers.

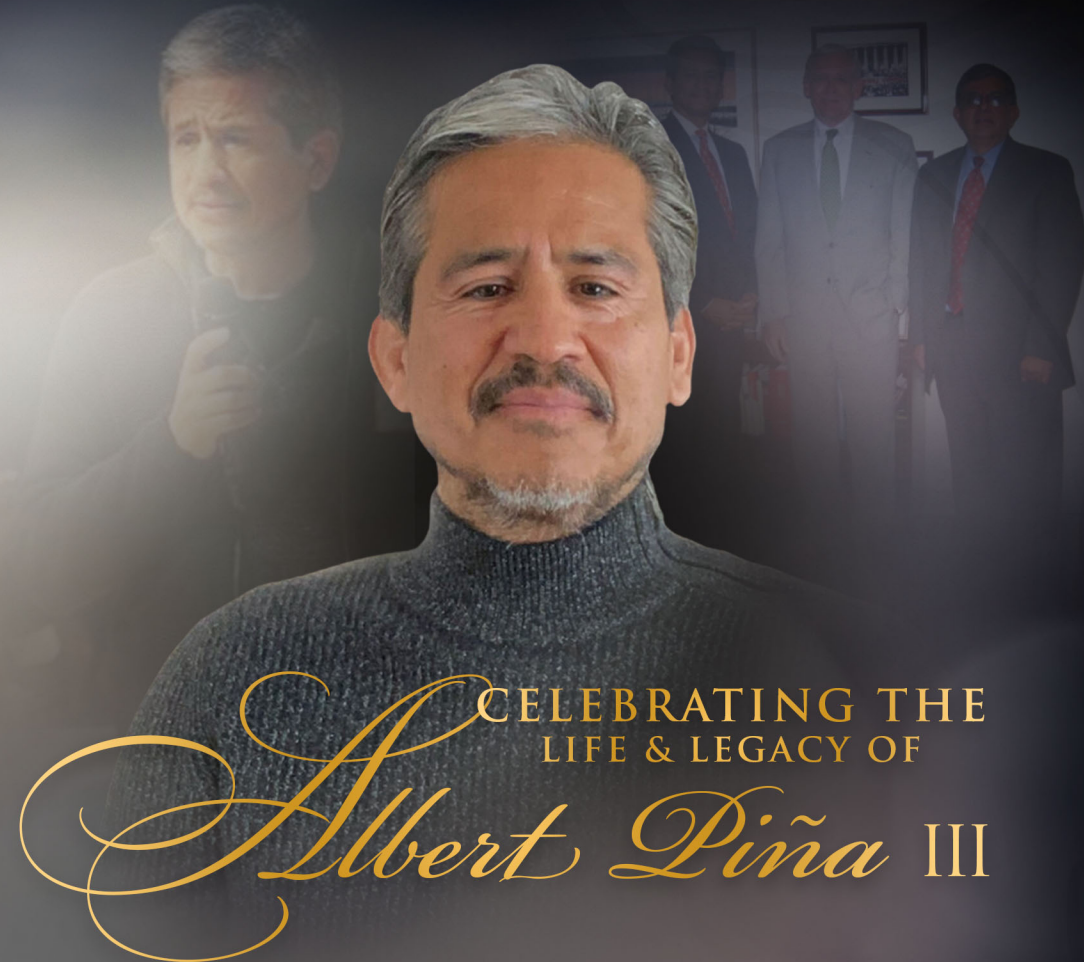

LEGACY GIFTS

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made in Al Piña's name to the Children's Cancer Center

4901 W Cypress St.

Tampa, Florida 33607

www.childrenscancercenter.org

CELEBRATING THE LIFE & LEGACY OF

Albert Piña III

SUNRISE
MAY 10, 1959

SUNSET
MAY 18, 2022

SUMMIT MEMORIAL SERVICE

Wednesday, August 17, 2022

BEGINNING AT 3:30 PM

SHERATON SAND KEY HOTEL ~ BEACH/GULF ROOM
CLEARWATER BEACH, FLORIDA

Order of Service

Rev. Alonzo Bell, Martin Evers Missionary Baptist Church
OFFICIANT

Opening Prayer
Rev. Alonzo Bell

Welcome & Words of Acknowledgment
Marcos Morales — CEO, Hogar Hispano

Family Reflections

Ron Piña — Al's Older Brother
Erica Piña Cardenas — Al's Daughter

Community Reflections

Kathy Cummings — SVP, Home Loans CRA/Fair Lending Strategy and Strategic Relations Executive, Bank of America

Jadira A. Hoptry — SVP, Director of Community Lending and Development, First Merchants Bank

Chris Rockey — Northeast Territory Executive, Community Development Banking, PNC Bank

Marilyn Drayton — *Social Impact & Sustainability Senior Manager,
Wells Fargo*

Scott McKee — *SVP/Director, Corporate Social Responsibility,
First Merchants Corporation*

A Life Well Lived Tribute

Dina Harris

President, FMCRC Board & President/Founder, National Faith Homebuyers

Gone, but Never Forgotten Tribute & Closing Prayer
Rev. Jules Dunham Howie — NBLES Coordinator

Song & Slideshow

A Well Lived Life

Albert Robert Piña III, "Al", unexpectedly passed on Wednesday, May 18, 2022 at his home in Tampa, Florida.

Al honorably served in the U.S. Air Force for four years and was a graduate of Arizona State University. Al began his community economic development career as Vice President of Development for the National Council of La Raza and was integral in launching the country's first minority focused housing and commercial real estate CDFI. In 2005, he took his efforts to Florida where he would spend the next 17 years launching and leading multiple national minority economic civil rights organizations, advocating for minority communities in Florida, as well as throughout the country. Al will be deeply missed, and his legacy will be forever etched in the minds and hearts of all those he helped and inspired.

He is preceded in death by his father, Albert Piña II, and his brother, Alejandro (Alex) Piña. He is survived by his mother, Inez D. Piña; his children; daughter, Erica and husband JR., daughter, Emily; and son, Albert; grandchildren, Nicholas Albert, Aliday Cristina and Noah James; great-grandson, Ro Michael; sister, Raquel Richter; brothers, Ronnie and Michael Piña; nephews, Ronnie, Diego, Adrian, Kyle and Kody; niece Michelle.

*"There are those who say this is the way of the world...
I say NO thus we make it"*

Al Piña